History

The Naval Construction Battalion Center was first established as a Advanced Base Depot on June 2, 1942 in Gulfport. The first Seabees were civilian construction workers who enlisted early in World War II to continue building for the Navy in the Pacific Theater and in Europe.

The mission of the Center changed in March 1944 from a receiving organization to a U.S. Naval Training Center, and provided for training for base engineering, diesel, radioman, quartermaster and electrician's ratings.

Realignments then created a single command of the Naval Training Center and the Advanced Base Depot. The depot became the U.S. Naval Storehouse in 1945 and the training center was decommissioned in 1946. In 1948 the station became custodian of national stockpile materials.

Today, the Center functions as a support for operating units of the Naval Construction Force. Specifically, it supports Naval Mobile Construction Battalions ONE, SEVEN, SEVENTY-FOUR, and ONE THIRTY-THREE, TWENTIETH Naval Construction Regiment, the Naval Construction Training Center, and other smaller tenant activities. The mission today is to prepare for and support all facets of the mobilization of construction forces, including reserve units. The Center is also responsible for preservation and storage of war reserves including construction equipment and materials.

Survival Tips For First Termers

Survival Tips for First Termers Overview

Being in the Navy is an opportunity and a proud tradition of more than 200 years of service. It is also a challenge as single and married Navy and Marine Corps members juggle their military duties, personal and financial obligations, and the demands of an immediate or extended family.

Navy personnel and their families are envied for the variety of their experiences and the number of places they travel and live. To make this attractive, mobile life possible, a great amount of planning and preparation is necessary.

Listed below are some "Survival Tips" to help you and your family as you face the challenges and opportunities of the Mobile Military Lifestyle.

Before You Move

Departure preparations:

As soon as you receive your orders, visit your Family Service Center Relocation Counselor. They have an extensive array of services and resources available for you including a SITES (Standard Installation Topic Exchange Service) booklet on your new duty station, information and classes on planning a move, Welcome Aboard Packages, videos of your new area (if available), overseas orientations, lending closets, etc.

Contact the Household Goods Office for an appointment with a counselor to schedule your household goods move. During your counseling sessions your counselor will provide a great deal of valuable information. Pay attention to details, take notes, ask questions, and follow directions. Failure to adhere to guidelines can be costly in time and money.

Notify your landlord, rental agent or Housing Office of your Permanent Change of Station (PCS) orders and anticipated date of departure. If there is a military clause in your lease, you must give this notification in writing.

Request a sponsor at your new duty station. This person can be your vital link to your new home. Your sponsor can send you specific information on your new location and assist you when you arrive.

Begin a calendar for your move. Include items to remember: change of address cards (get from Post Office), school records for your children, travel arrangements for your pets, etc.

Notify your friends, relatives, etc., of your upcoming move.

Start budgeting for the move. Contact your Finance Office or PSD to discuss your options regarding advance pay and travel funds. Even with your entitlements, special pay, allotments, etc., moving can be expensive. In addition, families facing the loss of one income during the relocation will feel additional financial impact.

This is by no means everything you'll have to remember! Check with your Relocation Counselor at your Family Service Center. If they are doing a Smooth Move class, sign up! They can provide you with complete checklists and many helpful publications to assist you with remembering all the details.

After You Arrive

Contact your Relocation Counselor! They have all the information you'll need once you arrive at your new duty station. Contact the Housing Office BEFORE making any arrangements for civilian housing. Rental/lease agreements are extremely important and are sometimes complicated. If you haven't already done so, now is the time to put your name on the waiting list for base housing.

Notify the Personal Property Office of your new address and to check on the status of your household goods. Have they arrived? Are they in storage? How much storage time am I entitled to? How do I file a claim if there is damage? All important questions to ask now that you've arrived.

Once you've found the perfect home and your worldly possessions have arrived, the job of getting acquainted with your new neighborhood begins.

Contact utility companies to make arrangements for connections.

On moving-in day, if you have small children, you might want to make arrangements for child care. Older children might want to help by checking off boxes as they come in or unpacking the special box of their belongings.

Be at your home before the movers arrive. Have an idea of where you want things placed...the movers will only put your couch in one place.

Check your belongings carefully and make sure to note on the inventory any damaged or missing items so you can file a claim at the Personal Property Office.

So many things to remember! You will find that services and procedures vary from base to base. When getting acquainted with your new base, be sure to find out:

- on base speed limits
- location of medical facility and procedures or emergency and walk-in care
- check cashing limits, procedures and hours of operation of the exchange and commissary
- and order new checks with your new address

Most importantly, remember help is just a phone call away. When in doubt, ask. Call your Relocation Counselor at any time. If they don't know the answer, they will find out.

Reporting Procedures

See "Installation Overview" section for getting to CBC, Gulfport. If you get lost or need assistance, call the Quarterdeck at (228)871-2555.

Travel Planning

Make your move an adventure. Some stress can be alleviated by beginning arrangements as soon as possible. Here are a few tips: If the move includes a car ride, get your pet used to being in a moving car. A pet who's never been in a moving vehicle probably feels like you do during a violent earthquake. Over a period of months, take your pet for several short drives. Cats should always ride in a carrier.

If you are traveling with pets, make sure the hotels you will be staying in accept pets on the premises. Keep in mind some hotels charge a fee for allowing pets to stay.

If you are flying with pets, find out from the particular airline about regulations governing your pet's flight. You may need to book 30 days in advance. In scheduling, avoid switching planes or lengthy layovers so as to minimize the amount of handling and stress your pet must undergo.

Plan ahead for car or plane trips. Let your children assemble a shoe box or backpack of personal treasures to handcarry during travel. A small pillow and stuffed animal can make long trips more comfortable.

Don't forget to bring cassette tapes of children's music and stories.

Don't overdo driving. Make frequent stops for gas, snacks, meals and anything resembling a playground.

Avoid tension during mealtime. Eat at a variety of places. While local cuisine is tempting to older family members, the your set will appreciate the efficiency and familiarity of fast food. Impromptu picnics of sandwiches, fruit and drinks can be eaten at roadside tables or under a shady tree.

Vehicle Ownership

Because different states have different insurance laws your insurance company will need to know where and when you are moving. In addition to automobile insurance, attention must be given to driver's licenses and auto registration. To avoid penalties, make sure all autos are properly inspected and registered and that all family members are properly licensed.

Housing and Billeting

Navy and Marine Corps are required to report to the Housing Referral Office at their new duty station upon arriving and before buying or leasing a home or apartment. The Housing Referral Office receives applications and maintains the waiting list for base housing. If you are applying for base housing, send an advanced housing application to HRO with a copy of your Page 2 and a copy of your orders and you will be placed on a waiting list.

The Housing Referral Office can assist you in locating off base housing and will provide information on the local community. The HRO maintains a computer based listing of local housing...costs, deposits, pet info, location of nearby schools, etc.

If base housing is unavailable, or if you choose to live in the civilian community, you and your family are entitled to receive Basic Allowance for Quarters (BAQ) to help you pay for housing. In the CBC, Gulfport area you also will receive VHA (Variable Housing Allowance) to help defray the costs of living in town. Make sure that if a lease is required, you have a "military clause" which will allow you to end the lease early without financial penalties if:

--You receive Permanent Change of Station (PCS) orders --You are notified that on-base housing is available --You leave active duty

Not all military clauses will protect you, especially if you are waiting for on-base housing. Be sure to check with legal or Housing Referral Office BEFORE you sign a lease for housing in town. It could save you lots of time and money in the long run!!!

In addition to the military clause, also make sure that your lease or rental agreement states clearly who pays for what utilities and what repairs. Then, if you decide that the agreement is satisfactory, walk through the apartment or house with the landlord, and make a list of any existing damage to the property. Have the landlord sign the list, and make a copy of it to keep with your copy of the lease.

Finally, pay your rent on time, and leave the property in as good condition as you found it to create good will for future service member tenants.

Money Matters

The costs associated with PCS orders can be debilitating for even the most solid budget. Though there are reimbursements for costs associated with PCS moves, research demonstrates the average military family reports out of pocket expenses of over $500.00 and that only one out of every three dollars is reimbursed. Listed below are some of the PCS moving allowances you can plan on to help you budget for your move.

DISLOCATION ALLOWANCE (DLA): Active duty personnel with family member moving from a permanent duty station are entitled to a dislocation allowance. This is paid to offset the costs of closing on home and setting up another. This allowance is equal to two months BAQ. DLA is not available to those transferring in the same geographical location. DLA may be dispersed at the time of travel, or upon arrival at the gaining command.

MILEAGE IN LIEU OF TRANSPORTATION (MALT): Service members receive a MALT when they drive to a new assignment. The allowance is computed on federal tables of mileage between the old and new duty stations. Even though the official distance may be longer or shorter than the service member drives, the official distance determines the allowance payable. MALT is also paid to those going overseas if they drive from their stateside location to the port of embarkation for transcontinental plans or ship, or from the port of debarkation to the new duty station.

Single active duty or spouse traveling alone - .15 per mileTwo family members - .17 per mileThree family members - .19 per mileFour or more family members - .20 per mile

These rates apply to spouses authorized to travel alone or with family members, and to sponsors traveling with family members. These rates also apply to travel in a second car when its use is authorized. MALT will be dispersed at the time of travel.

PER DIEM ALLOWANCE: Along with DLA and MALT, food and lodging are allotted when making a PCS move. The allowance is paid at a rate of 350 miles per day. Service members receive $50.00 a day plus $37.50 a day for their spouse and each family member under the age of twelve. When a spouse travels separately, the spouse receives $50.00 a day; and for family members traveling with the spouse it is $37.50 a day or $25.00 a day, depending on the age.

TEMPORARY LODGING EXPENSE ALLOWANCE (TLE): New arrivals at overseas bases are eligible for this allowance to help offset the cost of temporary housing and meals. You are entitled to TLA even if you move into temporary government quarters. The amount of TLA depends on several factors, including family size, local per diem rate, actual cost of quarters and whether the quarters provide cooking or dining facilities. A single person gets 65% of the local per diem rate if actual expenses are that much, and a member with one or two family members get 400% of the local per diem rate f expenses warrant. For each additional family member the per diem rate is raised by 25%. TLA is paid in fifteen day increments, and usually up to a sixty day limit for those arriving and a ten day limit for those departing overseas.

ADVANCED PAY: Drawing advance pay should be CAREFULLY considered when planning a move. As soon as you get your orders, a spending plan should be developed early enough to save extra money to be used to assist with the moving expenses. Many times advance pay is spent on other "emergencies" and is not around to assist with moving expenses. In addition, advance pay is a "dead horse" that automatically reduces your take home pay to use for bills and unforeseen moving expenses. Talk to your Command Financial Specialist prior to drawing advance pay.

No more than three months advance pay may be drawn. The advance is normally repaid in equal installments over twelve months. In certain cases, repayment can be spread over 24 months. Advance pay is your base pay, not pay with allowances. If approved by your commanding officer, an advanced housing allowance can be drawn. You must prove that this money will be used housing costs. Advance housing allowance is up to three months BAQ and VHA. Advance housing allowance may be re-paid over a 12 month period, and in exceptional circumstances, may be re-paid over a longer period. REMEMBER, ALL ADVANCED PAY IS TO BE RE-PAID.
